Let's go to San Andres "The sea of seven colors"

-  Transportation in/out from the airport to the hotel
-  3 nights stay at 3 stars hotels. Breakfasts are included.
-  Tour around the island by boat.
-  Tour to Johnny Cay, the aquarium and stingrays.

Destination Information: This Archipelago, located 230 kilometers east of Central America and 750 kilometers north of the continental territory of Colombia, was declared as a World Natural Reserve "Sea flower" in 2000. Not only does it include the islands and the cays, but also it conforms 10% of the Caribbean Sea, with an extension that is wider than 300 thousand kilometers squares.

More than 40 different places to dive, one of the best beaches of the Caribbean, a blue, green and purple sea color and people full of joy, are some of the most attracting features of San Andres, Providence and Santa Catalina.

Many visitors from around the world get to this paradise seeking for magical sunsets, white sand beaches and tall palm trees that move with the wind. All these, mixed with the kindness of its people, make San Andres one of the best places to have tropical vacation.

This small paradise has been influenced by English, Spanish and pirates, leading to a mixture of cultures, reason why, you might listen to some citizens speaking creole, which is a blend of some languages such as English, Spanish and other African dialects. However, this is not a reason to be worried about, because people in San Andres speak English and Spanish, making communication easy.

This blend of cultures has also influenced music. You may listen to some rhythms like Reggae, Reggaeton, Soca, Calypso, Merengue, Vallenato and Salsa music.
